A Message From Governor Murphy

Dear Student:

I am excited that you have chosen to further your education. New Jersey has a long history as a place where jobs of the future are created, and there is a place for you here. As Governor, I encourage you to explore all degree options available in New Jersey. One of my top priorities is to ensure that all those who aspire to earn a college degree have equal access to a quality education right here in our State.

I am proud that New Jersey's colleges and universities continue to lead the nation in educational excellence. Our State boasts more than 50 public and private institutions that enroll over 420,000 students statewide and prepare students to compete in our competitive global market.

As you consider how to pay for your education, you should know that New Jersey is one of the top states in the country in making financial aid dollars available for students. The New Jersey Higher Education Student Assistance Authority is here to help make postsecondary education more affordable for you and your family. Please remember that making an investment in education now will have a lasting, positive impact for you, your family, and New Jersey. Best wishes as you pursue postsecondary education.

My very best,

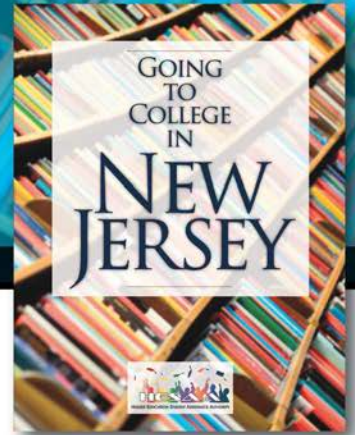

Philip D. Murphy
Governor

Going to College in New Jersey is a publication of the New Jersey Higher Education Student Assistance Authority (HESAA), the administrator of New Jersey's student financial aid programs for postsecondary education.

HESAA's mission is to provide students and families with the financial and informational resources for students to pursue their education beyond high school.

A MESSAGE FROM THE
HIGHER EDUCATION STUDENT ASSISTANCE AUTHORITY
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Dear Student,

Your hard work in school is an important reason why New Jersey is a national leader in education excellence. The State's high school graduation rate is ranked second in the nation, and nearly 70% of these graduates go on to attend postsecondary education. To support these college-bound students, New Jersey offers the most dollars in need-based grant aid per student of any state in the country. This financial assistance is providing strong support for students to reach their dreams of a college education, as well as a crucial investment in our state's future citizenry and workforce.

Governor Phil Murphy is committed to improving access and affordability of postsecondary education as part of building a stronger and fairer economy for all New Jersey residents. The New Jersey Higher Education Student Assistance Authority (HESAA) is pleased to support Governor Murphy's initiatives by offering comprehensive information and resources to assist with your college search, including this issue of Going to College in New Jersey. In this convenient source, you will find helpful information about New Jersey's financial aid programs, colleges, and courses of study.

As you explore your postsecondary options, consider the benefits of attending college in the Garden State. New Jersey has more than 50 degree-granting institutions with unique qualities and course offerings to suit your needs. And by attending an in-state college or university, you can save money while getting a high-quality education.

HESAA's helpful financial aid products and services include need-based grants and merit scholarship programs, as well as the NJBEST College Savings Plan, the NJCLASS supplemental family loan program, and financial literacy counseling. Since 1959, HESAA has assisted approximately 5 million students with over $18 billion in funds to make college more affordable.

We hope this publication furthers your interest in one of New Jersey's outstanding postsecondary institutions. Your college experience will greatly enhance your personal and professional growth, and open doors to amazing opportunities. The promise of a better future awaits you.

Best wishes,

WHY GO TO COLLEGE IN NEW JERSEY

The reasons to select a New Jersey college or university are virtually endless, and the schools available to you are as varied as your interests.

When researching colleges, consider your own needs first. Do you prefer small classes or large ones? Is a bustling urban location what you desire, or perhaps you would rather learn tucked away in a more rural setting? Are athletics, social activities, or clubs important?

No matter what your personal preferences, you need look no further than New Jersey to find the college that's right for you. Going to College in New Jersey features profiles of our 56 colleges and universities to give you greater insight into academic opportunities and campus life in the Garden State.

It's also important to think about your career goals when considering colleges. New Jersey's college graduates are competitive and prepared to pursue a profession or further study. Quality programs range from the arts to the high-tech. See pages 67 to 72 for a listing of degree programs available at schools in our state.

"Nearly one-third of New Jersey full-time college students receive need-based aid."

The cost of college may be a consideration in your search. However, college is a wise investment in your future. Statistics show that college graduates can expect to earn twice as much or more than those who lack a degree. In addition, New Jersey is committed to ensuring college access and affordability. Nearly one-third of New Jersey's full-time college students receive need-based aid. There are also merit scholarships for high-achieving students and affordable student loan programs.

Once you determine which schools interest you, be sure to write, phone, visit their web sites or take a tour. With so many options available, you only need to decide which New Jersey college or university suits you best.

In New Jersey, students have access to a variety of postsecondary institutions, including two-year community colleges, four-year colleges and universities, and career schools. These institutions provide highly diversified programs of study to meet the individual needs of students as they prepare for future careers.

AFTER HIGH SCHOOL

TWO-YEAR COLLEGES

Two-year colleges offer students the opportunity to earn an associate degree, including the Associate in Arts, the Associate in Science; and the Associate in Applied Science. Your education at a two-year school can provide you with specialized training that can be immediately applied to a job following graduation. It can also prepare you for transfer to a four-year institution where you can complete your bachelor's degree.

New Jersey's county and community colleges primarily serve the residents of their respective county. In most instances, students enroll in the institution that serves their county. However, if you live in a county without a community college, or if your college doesn't offer the program you want, you can attend one of the other community colleges.

FOUR-YEAR COLLEGES & UNIVERSITIES

New Jersey's four-year colleges grant a bachelor's degree, which is also called a baccalaureate. A few offer an associate, and most have graduate degree programs. Four-year colleges generally offer a broad curriculum, unless the school specializes in a certain area of study, such as music.

Graduates typically receive a Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree. Some New Jersey colleges offer degrees with specialized titles such as a Bachelor of Science in Engineering or a Bachelor of Fine Arts. Some colleges offer programs leading to a master's or doctoral degree.

TRANSFERRING FROM A TWO-YEAR SCHOOL

The New Jersey Presidents' Council approved the Comprehensive State-Wide Transfer Agreement. Under the provisions of this agreement, an Associate of Arts (AA) or Associate of Science (AS) degree from a New Jersey community college will be fully transferable as the first two years of a baccalaureate degree program and will be considered to have completed all lower division general education requirements. For additional information visit njtransfer.org, a joint initiative between the New Jersey Office of the Secretary of Higher Education and the New Jersey Presidents' Council.

CAREER SCHOOLS

Career schools train students for a specific vocation. Programs of study are usually, but not always, shorter in duration than traditional colleges — ranging from 6 months to one year. Programs range from automotive repair to culinary arts, from electronics to paralegal, from gaming to health care. Career schools can also serve as a stepping stone to entry into a two-year or four-year degree program. For a list of career schools in New Jersey, visit www.careerschoolsinnewjersey.com

CHOOSING A COLLEGE

CHOOSING A COLLEGE IS AN EXCITING DECISION. Since your final choice will greatly impact your future, you should take time to figure out what you expect to learn and gain from your college experience.

First, consider yourself. WHAT ARE YOUR GOALS AND INTERESTS? What are your academic strengths and weaknesses? Then consider the school, including its academic characteristics, admissions policy, costs, student aid programs, and student body. Determining what you want most and what a college can offer you will help you reach a decision about where to apply.

You can also NARROW DOWN YOUR CHOICES by attending college fairs, visiting college websites, reviewing college planning guides (found in the library and on the web), and taking campus tours. Your high school guidance counselor can advise you on college preparation, planning, and selection. You can also seek personal advice from friends and family.

APPLYING TO COLLEGE

Apply to the schools that most suit your interests and your objectives. You can obtain applications by contacting the college or you can apply online through the college's website.

COLLEGE APPLICATION FORMS MAY ASK FOR:

- > personal information
- > educational experience
- > high school transcript
- > standardized test scores
- > class rank
- > letters of recommendation
- > awards and honors
- > extracurricular activities
- > work experience
- > essay, if needed
- > social networking profiles

You may be required to complete an application for each school in which you have an interest, but there are alternatives to consider when targeting multiple schools. There are electronic and online resources that enable you to complete one application that will be accepted by participating schools. First, you should ask your target schools about their participation in electronic and online resources.

Tip! Your application may be your first introduction to an institution and you want to make a good impression. Make sure your application is clean, neat, and thoroughly completed. Make note of deadlines and submit your application well in advance. Proofread your application and your essay. Make a copy of your application and any attachments for your records. You may want to complete your application and your essay on blank paper first so that corrections can be made before entering your information online or on the actual form.

GETTING ADMITTED

Four-year institutions have admissions requirements, which vary by school. To make an acceptance decision, institutions will carefully review the information you provide on your application and may require a personal interview or, in some cases, a portfolio of your work.

County community colleges have open admissions policies. This means if you have a high school diploma or a general educational development certificate (GED), or if you are at least 18 years old, you are guaranteed admission into the community college that serves your county. There are special entrance requirements for some programs. You must meet these requirements before you can be admitted to that program. Consult each school for specific admissions policies.

EARLY ADMISSION

Some institutions have early admission or early access policies. This can be attractive to students who are absolutely certain about the school they want to attend. However, early admission policies can restrict or prohibit you from applying to other schools. If you are uncertain about the school or need more information about costs and financial aid, you should carefully consider the pros and cons before seeking early admission.

REAL MONEY 101

CREDIT | BANKING | INVESTING | STUDENT LOANS

PLAN WISELY FOR A SUCCESSFUL FUTURE

When asked to identify the key ingredients of a successful future, many students believe it's getting into a good school or landing a great job. However, your future success and security will also depend greatly on your money management skills.

HESAA's Real Money 101 program is designed to introduce you to the world of budgeting, using credit wisely, and personal finance. Our program provides information and tools for students to use to achieve financial independence after graduation.

For many, your first credit obligation is repayment of federal student loans. Real Money 101 teaches you the principles of smart borrowing and the steps to take if you ever run into trouble repaying debts.

If you should default (become 270 days delinquent) on a loan, the loan may be subject to collection costs and legal fees. There are many options to avoid default, including forbearance, deferment, loan consolidation, and income-based or extended repayment. You may also consult one of New Jersey's Licensed Budget and Credit Counseling Agencies found on the New Jersey Department of Banking and Insurance website. If you are experiencing problems, call your lender or HESAA right away to find out what options are available to you.

For more information about money and debt management, call HESAA at 609-584-4480, or view HESAA's Real Money 101 program on the web at hesaa.org.

PAYING FOR COLLEGE

Student financial aid is widely available in New Jersey, which ranks among the top states in the country in aid dollars available for full-time students. The Higher Education Student Assistance Authority (HESAA) administers New Jersey's student aid programs.

In New Jersey, state financial assistance is provided through grants for needy students, merit-based scholarships for high-achieving students, and state and federal student loan programs. In addition to aid from HESAA, you may receive assistance from federal and institutional aid programs. Generally speaking, grants and scholarships are considered “gift aid,” or aid that does not have to be repaid. Student loans are sources of aid that must be repaid.

When determining your financial aid options, it is important to work closely with a financial aid counselor at any institution you are interested in attending. Your financial aid counselor will review your eligibility for state, federal, and institutional assistance programs and prepare a financial aid package to help you meet the costs at that school.

STATE GRANTS

New Jersey's Tuition Aid Grant (TAG) program is one of the nation's most generous financial aid programs, and New Jersey ranks among the top states in providing aid for needy students.

Depending on your need and the type of institution you attend, a TAG award can cover up to the full cost of tuition or a portion of that cost. One in every three full-time New Jersey students receives TAG, and awards may be used at nearly all New Jersey postsecondary institutions, including county colleges, state colleges, and eligible private colleges and universities.

To get the best idea of a family's ability to pay higher education expenses, eligibility for TAG is determined by a review of a number of factors, such as family income and assets, family size, and the number of students in college. The cost of attendance is also taken into consideration, so you should never feel that a school is beyond your reach just because it is more expensive.

In New Jersey, aid for exceptionally needy students is also available through Educational Opportunity Fund (EOF) grants.

■ How to Apply

To apply for TAG or EOF, you must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and the additional State questions. The filing deadlines are September 15 for a fall or full-year award and February 15 for a spring award.

To be considered for an EOF grant for the academic year, students must apply according to State deadlines.

STATE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMS

New Jersey's merit-based scholarships recognize academic excellence while encouraging students to continue their education at in-state colleges and universities.

HESAA also administers several special scholarship programs. These include scholarships for students who have performed exceptional acts of heroism and for children of emergency service personnel and law enforcement officers who have been killed in the line of duty.

NJ STARS

The New Jersey Student Tuition Assistance Reward Scholarship (NJ STARS) Program is an initiative created by the State of New Jersey that provides New Jersey's highest achieving students with free tuition at their home county college. New Jersey residents who rank in the top 15% of their class at the end of either junior or senior year of high school may be eligible to receive an NJ STARS award for attendance at their home county college. The NJ STARS award covers the cost of tuition, less any state and/or federal grants and scholarships, for up to 18 credit hours per semester. Students identified as potential NJ STARS must achieve the required score on a college placement test to demonstrate readiness for college-level coursework prior to receiving a scholarship. If remediation is required, the student has one year from September 1 following high school graduation to demonstrate college readiness. Students must have completed a rigorous high school course of study.

NJ STARS II

Successful NJ STARS scholars may be eligible for NJ STARS II, a program that provides funding to pursue a baccalaureate degree to students who earn an associate degree from a county college and attain a cumulative GPA of 3.25 or higher. All programs are subject to change based on annual State appropriations and legislative amendments.

Writing your own story means finding your voice – and discovering you have a story no one else can tell. At Bloomfield College, you'll get the education and experiences you need to discover your voice – and the community and opportunities that will let you use it.

For nearly 150 years, Bloomfield College has been at the forefront of innovation in higher education. Since our inception in 1868, we have been an institution that has strived to not only provide our students with a first-class education, but also prepare them for the multicultural and global society that awaits them when they graduate. We have stayed true to our mission, while evolving into one of the premier national liberal arts colleges in the nation. Today, we offer students from over 30 countries a state-of-the-art educational experience in seven academic disciplines, creating a personalized journey in any of our 60-plus majors and concentrations.

Located just 15 miles from New York City in the world's most vibrant market, Bloomfield is consistently ranked by national organizations as one of the top private Colleges in the country. U.S. News & World Report has named Bloomfield Colleges the 11th most diverse liberal arts college in the United States and one of the top national liberal arts colleges in the country in the "America's Best Colleges" rankings for 2015. Bloomfield College was also named one of Money magazine's "Best Colleges" in its annual rankings, which highlights institutions that are giving students the best value for their money and highest return on investment.

Bloomfield College administers more than $48 million in financial aid per year, and awards more than $15 million per year to students in scholarships and grants. We offer the lowest tuition among New Jersey independent colleges and universities. Our financial aid counselors will work with you every step of the way and make sure you receive the maximum amount of aid available to you.

Since its founding in 1967, Brookdale has reimagined what it means to be a community college. Generations of students have discovered their passions, started rewarding careers and chased down their dreams on one of Brookdale's six campuses in Monmouth County.

In the last few years alone, Brookdale students have transferred to Columbia, Cornell and Georgetown universities. They have worked for NASA, started their own businesses, published books, and defeated celebrity chefs on national television.

Each year we create thousands of success stories, and it all starts in the classroom. Our award-winning faculty strive to provide a university-level education in a collaborative, engaging environment. From our acclaimed honors program to our new academic tutoring center, we are here to serve students of all backgrounds and experience levels.

Each year Brookdale awards more than $30 million in grants, scholarships and other financial aid, including hundreds of scholarships to middle-class students who don't qualify for traditional aid. Many graduates also go on to earn scholarships at their transfer school.

We have comprehensive career, internship, and transfer services, more than 50 student clubs and campus organizations, a dedicated Veteran's Center, free online and in-person tutoring, study abroad opportunities, art galleries and performing arts centers, national champion athletics programs, and a wide range of other benefits that are available to you from the moment you step on campus.

For degree seekers, we offer convenient partnerships with many four-year universities that allow students to transfer seamlessly, earn discounted tuition, and even earn a bachelor's degree without leaving Monmouth County. We also offer a wide range of career training programs – from nursing to paralegal to automotive technology – that are designed to lead straight into a new career.

No matter what your dream, Brookdale has the faculty, facilities, and support you need to see it through.

Caldwell University is a private, Catholic, coed, four-year college with a strong liberal arts curriculum and nationally accredited professional programs. The university offers 27 undergraduate programs and 30 graduate and certificate programs including three doctoral programs, a Ph.D. in applied behavior analysis and a Ph.D. and an Ed.D. in educational administration. Caldwell was recognized as a top-tier regional university in the North by U.S. News & World Report.

In the fall of 2016 the university established a new Department of Public Health and began offering a bachelor of science in public health education. The university also introduced new undergraduate programs in health care administration and applied language and a new master's in higher education.

A number of the university's bachelor and master's programs have received national accreditations including nursing from the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education; business from the Accreditation Council for Business Schools & Programs; education from the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation; the M.A. in applied behavior analysis by the Behavior Analysis Accreditation Board, and mental health counseling, school counseling and mental health counseling/art therapy from the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs. The mental health counseling with art therapy emphasis graduate program is also the first and only program of its type in the nation to receive that prestigious certification. This program is approved by the American Art Therapy Association.

Caldwell offers 15 intercollegiate athletic programs that compete at the NCAA Division II level. In the fall of 2017 the university will add sprint football to play in the Collegiate Sprint Football League. Caldwell is adding a marching band to support its sprint football team.

The university was founded by the Sisters of Saint Dominic of Caldwell, and its core values of respect, integrity, community and excellence influence academic and campus life. The university offers a number of study abroad opportunities, campus ministry, student government, clubs and organizations, Greek life and recreational sports.

The Career Planning and Development Office provides students and alumni with the tools to explore and choose academic majors and career options, obtain career-related experience such as internships and shadowing opportunities and pursue post-graduation career plans including employment and graduate school.

Caldwell was approved for university status in 2013 and began operating as a university July 1, 2014.

Established in 1867, Centenary University provides high quality liberal arts and professional studies while helping students gain the skills and connections they need to prosper in today's world. The history and traditions we celebrate at Centenary form from the very foundation of the University and provide a solid building block for successfully educating and preparing students to face tomorrow's challenges.

Committed to student success, Centenary provides traditional, accelerated, and online programs to fit every student's needs. We offer associate and bachelor degree options in 52 career-focused programs, Master's and doctorate degrees, and various certification opportunities.

Centenary's approach balances liberal arts studies with your own career goals. Each student stands at the center of an educational experience that encourages exploration, investigation, and practical learning. Our faculty includes Fulbright Scholars and other nationally recognized researchers and academics. Many are also practitioners who put their specialized knowledge to work in the classroom.

The success of Centenary students extends well beyond the classroom. An astounding 94% of Centenarians, compared to a national rate of 69%, have jobs or are attending graduate school within a year after graduation. Additionally, Centenary has one of the highest four-year graduation rates in the State of New Jersey.

Centenary University is accredited by the Middle States Association and the National Association of State Directors for Teacher Education and Certification. We are fully accredited by the Teacher Education Accreditation Council (TEAC), the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE), and Specialized Accreditation by the International Assembly for Collegiate Business Education (IACBE).

Welcome to the College of Saint Elizabeth, a Catholic academic institution founded in 1899 by the Sisters of Charity on the tenets of excellence, integrity, leadership, and social responsibility. Our students take advantage of all the College has to offer on a beautiful 200-acre campus bordered by the NJ Transit train to New York City. The proximity to New York and the Metropolitan area allows students to seek out internships, service opportunities, and/or employment with many of CSE's partners.

In 2016, the College will be totally coeducational. CSE athletics will be fielding men's basketball and soccer with men's tennis, volleyball, and swimming teams following in the next three years.

CSE students are challenged both in and out of the classroom to seek answers to the difficult moral and ethical questions of our time. Through intellectual discourse and study, students discover their obligations to others and their responsibility to those who have no voice. Our alumni have excelled in their respective fields in medicine, physical and mental health fields, law, business, and public service.

With over 25 different accelerated paths of study in healthcare, trades, technology and business that can be completed in as little as nine months, Eastwick College is the ideal starting point for your career goals. The college is home to three conveniently located campuses in Ramsey, Hackensack, and Nutley, all accessible by public transportation and major highways.

The classrooms at Eastwick College feature specialized hands-on laboratory settings where students train with some of the same procedures and equipment that graduates will encounter on the job. As a result, employers consistently report that Eastwick graduates are some of their best prepared employees. Hundreds of hospitals, medical centers, and physicians' practices are affiliated with Eastwick College, offering students and graduates multiple externships, clinical rotations and employment opportunities. Eastwick graduates receive lifetime placement assistance to help them secure a career in their field.

Some of the most unique, in-demand programs in the area are offered at Eastwick College, many that can be completed in as little as six months. For those interested in pursuing a cooking career, the culinary arts associate degree features a fully-equipped professional kitchen setting and a catering hall component that serves the public, allowing students to test their skills in a real-world scenario. The college also offers a funeral service degree that recently earned full accreditation by the ABFSE (American Board of Funeral Service Education), a valuable recognition for graduates starting careers in funeral directing and embalming. And Eastwick has recently announced its first bachelor's degree, available for the successful cardiovascular sonography path of study, that will boost career opportunities for graduates at the prestigious Magnet hospitals. Other popular programs include occupational therapy assistant (OTA), surgical technology, licensed practical nursing (LPN), computer networking and support technology, HVACR, and business and hospitality.

More than 100 career-oriented majors ... hands-on professional internships ... opportunities to do research and study abroad ... Division I and Division III sports ... generous academic scholarships and grants ... and a global perspective in all your studies. These are just some of the many reasons students make Fairleigh Dickinson University their college choice.

The Florham Campus in Madison features 178 acres of woods, gardens and historic buildings. Just minutes from New York City, FDU's contemporary Metropolitan Campus in Teaneck attracts students from all over the world.

As New Jersey's largest private university, Fairleigh Dickinson offers all the resources students expect of a major university. But FDU's multi-campus structure creates very personal living and learning environments that emphasize small classes and close student-faculty interaction. The average class size is under 20 students — and all classes, including first-year studies, are taught by faculty, not graduate assistants.

Life at Felician University is anchored in the classroom, with outstanding professors, interesting courses, and challenging, hands-on learning experiences. What are you going to study? Choose from a broad selection of majors, minors and concentrations in the arts and sciences, business, nursing and education. If you are looking for something on the cutting edge, you might consider our majors in cybersecurity, criminal justice, or our five-year combined BS/MBA degree in business.

Our curriculum and internship programs make regular use of the possibilities presented by our close proximity to New York City – the Rutherford campus is only 10 miles west of Midtown. World-class museums, a vibrant art world, and a global hub for business serve as an extension of your classroom. Recent internship sites include The Food Network, MTV Networks Music & Logo Group, New York Red Bulls, and the U.S. Secret Service.

You will sense a commitment to you that is deeply rooted in our Catholic/Franciscan spirit, which embodies our love of learning, commitment to service and respect for all creation. Diversity is central to student learning at Felician University. You will find a comfortable and inclusive setting where you will become prepared for an increasingly complex and diverse society.

The best way to experience our Felician University spirit is to visit us – tour our residence halls, meet students or attend an athletic event. We have 14 Golden Falcon men's and women's teams participating in NCAA Division II sports.

Kean University provides a world-class education and rewarding college experiences that prepare students for career success and lifelong learning. Renowned for its excellence in teacher preparation and nursing education, Kean offers undergraduate, graduate and doctoral degree programs aligned with today's hottest careers including global business, allied health, sustainability, architecture and design.

Kean students gain hands-on experience through internships at multinational corporations, field placements and top-notch research facilities, like those in Kean's New Jersey Center for Science, Technology and Mathematics. Kean's campus is home to the Human Rights Institute and the Community Cares Clinic, New Jersey's only university-based occupational therapy clinic, serving clients of all ages.

At Kean Ocean, community college graduates and junior-level transfer students can earn a bachelor's degree without leaving the Jersey Shore. Kean's campus in Wenzhou, China, gives students a chance to study in the world's fastest-growing economy. Liberty Hall Museum and Kean's "living laboratory" in the Highlands offer students additional research and practical learning opportunities.

A mere 16 miles from New York City, Kean's 180-acre Union campus houses five art galleries, state-of-the-art performance spaces and other cultural, recreational and health facilities. Kean is home to more than 170 student organizations and 13 NCAA Division III sports teams.

NJCU provides top-quality education to students who reflect the dynamism of the University's metropolitan Jersey City location. Within an intimate academic community, NJCU faculty and staff prepare students to be leaders in a global society.

NJCU is among the most diverse in the nation and is the safest public university in New Jersey. Its tuition and fees are the least expensive of the public, four-year institutions in New Jersey, and debt burden for graduates is the lowest. NJCU's Debt-free Promise Program can help New Jersey residents who are first-time freshmen cover expenses not met by federal and state financial aid. Designated a 2017 Military Friendly School, NJCU is also among 2017 Top Colleges and Universities for Military Advanced Education and Transition.

NJCU offers 43 undergraduate and 28 graduate degree programs, and three doctoral programs. A challenging honors program is offered and numerous study abroad opportunities for short-term or semester-long experiences are encouraged. NJCU is one of two universities in New Jersey to host a Confucius Institute which provides education on Chinese language and culture.

Within this stimulating environment, NJCU students prepare for success by engaging in rigorous applied-learning experiences that include STEM research on international projects, performances, exhibitions, and cooperative education internships. Over 600 undergraduate and graduate courses are offered online or in blended format in addition to face-to-face classes.

NJCU's Center of Academic Excellence in Information Assurance is jointly designated by the National Security Agency and the U.S. Department of Homeland Security. Bachelor's and Master's programs in national security studies and the nation's first D.Sc. in Civil Security Leadership, Management and Policy are in demand.

A robust athletics program, student organizations, fraternities and sororities, and an exciting variety of performing, visual, and literary arts events contribute to this unique and rewarding NJCU experience. This fall the 425-bed West Campus Village Residence Hall at University Place opened, more than doubling the number of resident students.

NJCU operates two off-campus sites—NJCU School of Business in Jersey City's financial district and NJCU at Brookdale in Wall Township.

Princeton University is a vibrant community of scholarship and learning that stands in the nation's service and in the service of all nations. It is a private university with undergraduate programs leading to the bachelor of arts and bachelor of science in engineering degrees. Methods of instruction vary, but common to all areas of the academic program is a strong emphasis on individual work and the free interchange of ideas and opinions. This is reflected most notably in the wide use of preceptorials and seminars, in the provisions for independent study for all A.B. upperclass students, in the requirement of a senior thesis and in the availability of a series of special programs to meet a range of individual interests.

- Middle States Accredited
- A 4-year public co-educational college with eight graduate programs

Ranked by U.S. News & World Report as one of the top in the Best Regional Public Universities North category, Ramapo College of New Jersey is often viewed as a private college. This is due, in part, to its unique interdisciplinary academic structure, its size of approximately 6,200 students and its pastoral setting in the foothills of the Ramapo Mountains on the New Jersey/New York border.

Established in 1969, Ramapo College offers bachelor's degrees in the arts, business, humanities, social sciences and the sciences, as well as in professional studies, which include nursing and social work. In addition, Ramapo College offers courses leading to teacher certification at the elementary and secondary levels. The College also offers eight graduate programs as well as articulated programs with Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, New York Chiropractic College, New York University College of Dentistry, SUNY State College of Optometry and New York College of Podiatric Medicine.

Undergraduate students choose to concentrate their studies in one of five schools with 560 course offerings and more than 45 academic programs. Ramapo College boasts an average student/faculty ratio of 18:1 and average class size of 23, affording students the opportunity to develop close ties to the College's exceptional faculty.

The College's mission is focused on the four "pillars" of a Ramapo education: international, intercultural, interdisciplinary and experiential (hands on), all of which are incorporated throughout the curricula and extracurricular programs. The international mission is further accomplished through a wide range of study abroad and exchange student links with institutions all over the world. Additional experiential programs include internships, co-op and service learning.

Ramapo College of New Jersey is listed in Kiplinger's Personal Finance Magazine as among the "100 Best Values in Public Colleges," a distinction held by only three New Jersey institutions of higher education. The John Templeton Foundation has named Ramapo College to its Honor Roll for Character-Building Colleges. Ramapo also has been recognized as a "Military Friendly School" by Victory Media, in the 2017 Guide to Military Friendly Schools, and Ramapo is listed as by CollegesofDistinction.com, a website dedicated to honoring schools

Rider University is a comprehensive private university of approximately 5,100 students who are drawn to its programs in business, education, liberal arts and sciences, and music and the fine and performing arts.

At Rider, we believe that we learn best in the company of others. Our vibrant and engaged learning community brings together people from diverse backgrounds, talents and perspectives to explore subjects, tackle problems, share ideas, embark on adventures and create solutions.

Originally founded in 1865 as a business college to prepare professionals for the booming post-Civil War economy, Rider moved to its current 280-acre campus in Lawrenceville, New Jersey, in 1959. It is home to the College of Business Administration; College of Liberal Arts, Education, and Sciences; College of Continuing Studies; School of Fine and Performing Arts; and School of Education.

In nearby Princeton, N.J., is Westminster Choir College of Rider University, considered one of the leading schools of music of its kind in the world. The merger between Westminster Choir College and Rider in 1992 also led to the successful integration of the fine and performing arts University-wide with the creation of Westminster College of the Arts in 2007, which offers select majors on both the Princeton and Lawrenceville campuses.

Centrally located between Philadelphia and New York, Rider's proximity to these centers of commerce, communications, culture and education offers graduate and undergraduate students alike the rich hands-on experiences they need to prepare for a professional career.

Rider boasts a student-to-teacher ratio of just 11 to 1, and 99 percent of its faculty members hold the Ph.D. or terminal degree in their fields. The University is accredited by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education and holds specialized accreditation with the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business International (AACSB), the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM), the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Education Programs (CACREP), and the National Accreditation of School Psychologists (NASP). Rider is also on the approved list of the American Association of University Women and the American Chemical Society.

Rowan College at Burlington County is ranked among the top 3 percent of community colleges in the nation for boosting graduates' earning power and it is reinventing itself into the national model of higher education for academic and workforce development programs.

In June 2015, the former Burlington County College established a new partnership with Rowan University, providing students conditional-acceptance into the university. Rowan University offers RCBC students discounts for programs online and on the Mount Laurel campus making it possible to earn a bachelor's degree for about $25,000.

The college offers associate degree programs, certificates, career track majors, continuing education classes, and business training from the Workforce Development Institute. An RCBC degree allows you to seamlessly enter Rowan University or transfer to many other local and national four-year institutions.

RCBC is bringing the modern campus experience to its main campus in Mount Laurel, which will enhance students' ability to collaborate with their peers and outstanding faculty. We are committed to helping you meet your educational and professional goals in the most affordable, accessible and engaging educational environment.

Rowan College at Gloucester County (RCGC) is a unique collaboration between formerly Gloucester County College and Rowan University offering students a direct, cohesive route to a bachelor's degree with easy transfer of credits. This premier partnership strengthens the College's mission to make an affordable, quality education available to all students without accumulating enormous debt. The College promotes the retention of South Jersey students to better the region's economy through a highly-educated workforce and stronger tax base. Already an affordable education, RCGC offers a wide array of financial aid programs to help students finance their educations. Education is the key to success and Rowan College at Gloucester County provides students with a strong foundation to help bridge the transition between school and career. Ranked as one of Community College Week's top 40 fastest growing community colleges in the nation, RCGC serves as a valuable resource to students looking to transfer to four-year universities, enhance career options and foster personal enrichment — all with exceptional academic offerings at a reasonable cost. The College also functions as a social and cultural hub within the South Jersey area.

Recently designated a Carnegie-classified national doctoral research institution, Rowan University is recognized for its nationally ranked academic and athletic programs, talented professors and students, and high-tech facilities. The University, which has campuses in Glassboro, Camden and Stratford, prides itself on providing its nearly 18,500 students with an outstanding education at an exceptional value.

The University offers 70 bachelor's, 41 master's and seven professional/doctoral degree programs within seven colleges and five schools. Students can pursue their degrees on any of Rowan's campuses, online or at several partnering community colleges. Rowan is one of only three institutions in the nation to offer both M.D. and D.O. degree-granting medical programs — at Cooper Medical School of Rowan University and at the Rowan University School of Osteopathic Medicine (RowanSOM), respectively.

Through a unique public/private partnership with the Borough of Glassboro, Rowan continues to pioneer on a $450-million redevelopment project to complete Rowan Boulevard, a link between the University and Glassboro's historic downtown. Plans were unveiled in 2008, and Rowan Boulevard now boasts housing to accommodate nearly 1,200 Rowan students; classroom and office space for Rowan's Division of Global Learning & Partnerships, Thomas N. Bantivoglio Honors Concentration and College of Communication & Creative Arts; a Barnes & Noble Collegiate Superstore; a 129-room Courtyard by Marriott Hotel and Conference Center; market-rate housing; retail space; and a town square.

Many national organizations that evaluate colleges and universities regularly recognize Rowan. U.S. News & World Report ranked Rowan 90th among public institutions and 171st overall among 311 national universities. The report placed the Henry M. Rowan College of Engineering at 19th in the nation among the best undergraduate engineering schools, a 14-place improvement since just four years ago. Additionally, U.S. News also ranked RowanSOM in a four-way tie for primary care education with Columbia University, Thomas Jefferson University and the University of Illinois (51st out of 118 medical schools) and has named RowanSOM's geriatrics track a top program 16 times.

The School of Health Related Professions (SHRP) is an educational unit of Rutgers Biomedical and Health Sciences - Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey. The mission of the School is to offer programs of education and training in selected health related professions. SHRP offers over 37 health related specialties, in collaboration with over 35 postsecondary institutions and over 600 health care organizations and agencies throughout the state and region. Programs range from short-term post-high school certificates through doctoral educational experiences. SHRP also offers joint programs with numerous collaborating public and independent colleges. Most of our collaborative joint programs require the students to complete their general education with the partner school and then come to SHRP to complete the professional component of the program. Rutgers School of Arts and Sciences - Newark Campus is a partner for all Bachelor of Science degrees. SHRP has many programs beyond the entry level programs designed for practicing professionals. These programs are online and attract professionals across the country.

SHRP is located in Newark, Scotch Plains, Piscataway, Stratford and the Web.

Saint Peter's University, inspired by its Jesuit, Catholic identity, commitment to individual attention, and strong foundation in the liberal arts, educates a diverse community of learners in undergraduate, graduate, doctoral and professional programs. Students are able to grow intellectually, lead ethically, serve with compassion, and promote justice in our ever-changing global environment.

The 25-acre main campus, located in the heart of Jersey City, is situated just 12 minutes from Manhattan, and a stone's throw from Wall Street West, a bustling revitalized business district along the Hudson River. Including the Englewood Cliffs campus for adult learners, the University has an enrollment of 3,400.

Students join a community of individuals in a family-like atmosphere where they are encouraged to realize their full potential in preparing, not only for meaningful careers, but to be caring members of their communities. The rigorous liberal arts core curriculum is supported by an academic environment that includes a 13:1 faculty-to-student ratio and an average class size of 22 students. At Saint Peter's, your professors know you by name and will guide and mentor you through your studies and beyond.

Saint Peter's University is accessible with 98% of all students receiving some form of financial aid. We offer scholarships and grants that make us one of the most affordable private colleges and universities in the region, and give many deserving students the chance to pursue their degree.

SALEM
COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Salem Community College meets the need for unique and high-demand careers, regionally and nationally. Of particular note, SCC offers degrees in Scientific Glass Technology and Nuclear Energy Technology, which are supporting industry need for employees with specialized skills.

SCC's flagship program in Scientific Glass Technology is the only one of its kind in the United States, and therefore attracts students from across the country. The program -- which teaches students how to create glass apparatus for scientific research in laboratories, universities and industry -- boasts a nearly 100 percent job placement rate for graduates.

SCC offers its cutting-edge, high-tech Nuclear Energy Technology program in collaboration with PSEG Nuclear. Employment of nuclear technicians is projected to grow by 15 percent through 2022, because of greater demand for nuclear energy, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS). The BLS also reports $69,060 as the median annual salary for nuclear energy technicians.

“Thinking” translates into “doing” at Stockton. Gain hands-on experience in nursing, public health or physical therapy at the two hospitals on campus; conduct computational science or IT research in our high-powered computer labs or at nearby technology centers; “live” a hospitality and tourism internship 24/7 at the Seaview—Stockton’s world-class resort; study artistic techniques firsthand through our partnership with the nearby Noyes Museum of Art and at the Philadelphia Museum of Art, just an hour away; bask in our beautiful, 2,000-acre campus in the Pinelands National Reserve just minutes from the ocean (a natural lab perfect for our nationally recognized marine science and environmental studies programs).

With our off-campus Instructional Sites at Hammonton, Manahawkin, Woodbine and Atlantic City, students can choose where to take classes as well as when. Our new Atlantic City Gateway campus (opening Fall 2018), features a new wave of opportunity for Stockton students: See stockton.edu/acgateway for details.

Most Stockton students engage in independent study with a faculty mentor. Small classes allow for discussion, debate and discovery—guided by Fulbright scholars, the most-published scientists in the world, and professors who care as much about teaching as research.

Rooted in a deep social and environmental consciousness, Stockton offers extensive service learning and human rights opportunities, and is an international leader in alternative energy research and conservation efforts.

More than 10,000 events annually, more than 130 student clubs and organizations, Greek life, academic and honor societies, intramural and club sports, and study abroad options enhance the Stockton experience. The Ospreys have won NCAA Division III National Championships and tournaments, ECAC titles and All-Americans, not to mention numerous NJAC championship titles and Final Four appearances.

The perfect size, the perfect place, at a public cost: Choose quality—value—distinction. Choose Stockton.

The College of New Jersey (TCNJ) is a highly selective institution that has earned national recognition for its commitment to excellence. TCNJ currently is ranked as one of the 75 “Most Competitive” schools in the nation by “Barron’s Profiles of American Colleges” and is rated the No. 1 public “master’s” institution in the northern region of the country by U.S. News & World Report. TCNJ was also awarded, in 2006, a Phi Beta Kappa chapter, an honor shared by less than 10 percent of colleges and universities nationally. A strong liberal arts core forms the foundation for a wealth of degree programs offered through TCNJ’s seven schools—arts and communication; business; humanities and social sciences; education; engineering; nursing, health, and exercise science; and science. Specialized undergraduate research programs, internships, and global study opportunities rival the experiences offered by top private colleges, making TCNJ one of the best public values in the nation. The college is enriched by an honors curriculum, and its award-winning First-Year Experience and freshman orientation programs have helped make TCNJ’s retention and graduation rates among the highest in the country.

Warren County Community College, founded in 1981, is a public community college established to provide quality higher education and support services at low cost to residents of the county. WCCC offers a variety of associate and certificate programs of study. Students can choose between degrees that are designed to transfer to a four-year college or career program degrees, designed to get you started in your career following the completion of your associate's degree. Certificates are designed to give you entry level skills for specific careers and can be a great complement to a degree you already hold. WCCC offers a friendly atmosphere and a dedication to all areas of student development. The Student Services office provides information on choices for the high school student considering college, the employee changing career goals and the adult returning to the classroom after a prolonged absence.

8 STEPS TO APPLY FOR FEDERAL & STATE STUDENT AID

STEP 1 - GET FREE HELP!

Get free information and help from your school counselor, the financial aid office at the college or career school you plan to attend, or HESAA at: www.hesaa.org or 609-584-4480 or the U.S. Department of Education (ED) at: www.FederalStudentAid.ed.gov or 1-800-4-FED-AID (1-800-433-3243). Free help is available any time during the application process. You should never have to pay for help.

STEP 2 - KNOW YOUR DEADLINES!

New Jersey State Deadlines

First-time NJ State Grant Applicants

Fall/Spring Applicants – September 15, 2018

Spring Only – February 15, 2019

Renewal Tuition Aid Grant Recipients

April 15, 2018

Federal Deadlines

Complete the FAFSA between October 1st and June 30th of the following year (no exceptions to either date) BUT apply as soon as possible. To meet deadlines apply online at www.fafsa.gov.

Your college may have deadlines too.

STEP 3 - PREPARE!

Use IRS Data Retrieval Tool (DRT) to complete your FAFSA! If you are unable to use DRT, you will need to collect your 2016 tax returns and other records of income. A full list of what you need is available at www.fafsa.gov

STEP 4 - LOGIN AND COMPLETE FAFSA!

Create your user ID and password by clicking on the FSA ID tab at the top of the www.fafsa.gov web page.

STEP 5 - ANSWER NEW JERSEY QUESTIONS!

To submit additional information required to be considered for New Jersey State grants and scholarships, New Jersey residents should click the link on the FAFSA on the web confirmation page entitled "Optional Feature – Start your state application..." Once completed you will be noticed to login to <https://njfams.hesaa.org> to view the status of your State grant application by the Higher Education Student Assistance Authority.

STEP 6 - YOUR FAFSA RESULTS!

The U.S. Department of Education will send you your Student Aid Report (SAR) – the result of processing your FAFSA. Review your SAR, and if necessary, make changes or corrections and submit your SAR for reprocessing. You can submit corrections online at www.fafsa.gov. Your complete, corrected SAR will contain your Expected Family Contribution (EFC), which determines your federal student aid eligibility.

STEP 7 - VERIFY YOUR ANSWERS!

If you are selected for federal verification, your school's financial aid office will ask you to submit tax return transcripts and other documents, as appropriate. Be sure to meet the school's deadlines. To request an IRS tax return transcript go to www.irs.gov - it's free.

Note: The State of New Jersey may also request documents to verify information reported on the FAFSA.

STEP 8 - GET AWARD QUESTIONS ANSWERED!

All Students: Contact the financial aid office if you have any questions about the aid being offered.

First-Time Applicants: Review award letters from schools to compare amounts and types of aid being offered. Decide which school to attend based on a combination of (a) how well the school fits your needs and (b) its affordability after all aid is taken into account.

2018-2019
FAFSA
AVAILABLE NOW
visit www.fafsa.gov today
For FAFSA information and questions call 1-800-433-3243 or visit www.njfafsadays.org

FINANCIAL AID APPLICATION procedures for students selected for federal or state verification

VERIFICATION: A process where students and/or parents must provide proof that the information submitted on the FAFSA is accurate. New federal regulations now require a federal Tax Return Transcript, obtained from the IRS, as the only acceptable documentation. The New Jersey Tuition Aid Grant program is following these regulations to simplify your application process. Personal copies of your tax return are no longer acceptable documentation.

Requesting a federal Tax Return Transcript is as easy as 1-2-3!

DON'T FORGET TO OPEN AND READ YOUR MAIL! Respond to all requests for information. The deadline to submit the information is September 15 for fall TAG funds; February 15 for spring TAG funds; or within 30 days of the request, whichever is later. Missing the deadline = losing your TAG. Don't miss out on one of the most generous financial aid grant programs in the country.

STUDENT LOANS

Millions of students nationwide, including those who receive grants and scholarships, rely on affordable student loans to help pay for their education.

There are two primary types of student loans: federal and supplemental. Federal student loans offer fixed interest rates and favorable terms, including the option to defer repayment until you have completed your degree. Federal loans include the Direct Loan for students, the Federal PLUS loan for parents, and the Federal PLUS loan for graduate and professional students. Students may borrow Direct Loans regardless of financial need; however, those with need may receive a subsidized loan. With a subsidized loan, the federal government will pay the interest that accumulates on the loan while you are enrolled in college, for a short period after you graduate (grace period), and during periods of authorized deferment. For unsubsidized Direct Loans and Federal PLUS loans, interest is the responsibility of the borrower.

HESAA makes supplemental loans available to undergraduate and graduate borrowers through the NJCLASS (a family loan for higher education) program after eligibility for all other forms of financial aid have been exhausted. NJCLASS is one of the most affordable supplemental student loans in the country and has specific eligibility requirements. A borrower must meet both income and credit worthiness requirements, or have a credit-worthy cosigner.

A popular choice among college-bound students, NJCLASS can be used to pay a portion of the tuition or the entire cost of college. New Jersey residents can use NJCLASS to attend any approved college in the nation. Non-New Jersey residents attending a New Jersey college can also use NJCLASS.

■ How to Apply

NJCLASS loans can be completed by the online loan application. The application can be found on the HESAA website, www.hesaa.org or www.njclass.org.

For more information, call HESAA at 609-584-4480.

BORROW WISELY

College costs are rising, and more students are turning to loans to pay for educational expenses. Borrowing may be a necessity, but students are advised to borrow as little as possible. Borrowing should be a last resort after all student aid is exhausted. Student loans can help you achieve your educational goals, but don't over-borrow. Student loans are debts that must be repaid.

Plan in advance for repayment. Determining your potential debt and your expected income allows you to make responsible financial choices about your future.
